

SHAW STANDS BY THE BANKS
Offers to Put $20,650,000 More in Circulation.

BUT THE NATION WILL PROFIT
INTERNAL REVENUE RECEIPTS WILL GO TO BANKS.

The Secretary Emphasizes the Statement That He Is Not Trying Any Experiments in Relieving the Monetary Stringency.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 25.—Secretary Shaw today gave out the following statement: "Money once covered into the treasury (and this, of course, includes the subsidies) cannot thereafter be deposited in banks. All custom receipts are by law payable to the treasury and sub-treasuries. The only fund, therefore, available in banks, is internal revenue and miscellaneous receipts before they have been actually covered into the treasury. The amount to about half a million per day, and since the stringency arose to their full extent have been steadily returned to circulation. This policy will be continued for 30 or 60 days if needed and longer if necessary.

"In the meantime, national bank circulation has been increased about seven million dollars, largely induced by the distribution of deposits, and the further increase to the amount of eight millions is expected.

"All rumors of experiment have been unauthorized by the treasury department. It is to be hoped that the public will place no credence in vagaries started by irresponsible and untrusting men of the street. It is also hoped that the country will understand that the treasury department to the extent of its ability will stand by the banks, East and West, North and South, and it is hoped also that the banks will stand by every business and every interest that is worth protecting.

"The only way to get money out of the treasury into circulation after it has been actually covered in is by the payment of legal obligations of the government. These may be anticipated. The department did anticipate the October interest. It now offers to anticipate all interest maturing between Oct. 1 and the end of the fiscal year, if presented within 60 days, at a rebate of two-tenths of 1 per cent per month, which is at the rate of 2.4 per cent per annum. In other words, these obligations will be spread at such a rate as to allow the government to profit thereby at 2.4 per cent per annum. The amount maturing before June 29, 1903, is in round figures $20,650,000. The profit to the government if this offer shall be accepted will be in round figures $250,000.

"There will be no experiments tried, and no policy adopted until after mature deliberation and no voters will be deceived. Anything to the contrary should be discarded.

Regarding the published report that he had resigned, Secretary Shaw said: "I denied this rumor in Chicago. It is an unnecessary and untruthful story that has no author and is built upon a false assumption and is enlarged upon simply to fill space. The President and secretary of the treasury are in perfect harmony. Of this there need be no doubt if the speeches made by the President and the secretary will be read and compared, instead of the headlines.

STRONGLY URGES VACCINATION
Dr. Starkloff Recommends That All St. Louisans Take Preventive Measures Against Smallpox.

Health Commissioner Starkloff has prepared a letter to the public on the subject of vaccination, in which he urges all persons who have not been successfully vaccinated to be vaccinated at once. The letter states that during the year ended March 31 last, there were 10,000 persons vaccinated by the St. Louis health department. Just now the city is practically free from smallpox, according to the doctor's letter, only two cases have been reported in the past month, one of them coming from out of the city.

Smallpox is entirely preventable, the doctor says, and vaccination is the preventive. A person properly vaccinated is immune from the disease for ten years, according to the letter. He may eat, sleep and live with a victim of smallpox and not be afflicted.

The doctor pays his respects to the anti-vaccinationists at considerable length. He says some of them are sincere, all of them mistaken. He cites the health commissioner of Cleveland, O., as an illustration. He announced that he would do away with vaccination, the doctor says, and introduce fumigation and other systems as a substitute.

Dr. Starkloff says the system has proved unsatisfactory and that Cleveland now has more smallpox than it likes.

Dr. Starkloff says: "Be vaccinated and advise your friends to be vaccinated at once."

CHINESE LEPRO HAS BEEN CURED
Dong Gong Is Recommended for Discharge.

DR. WOODRUFF SUCCESSFUL
ASKS THAT DIAGNOSING PHYSICIANS INSPECT CURE.

Patient Has Been in the Quarantine Hospital Less Than a Year—At First Was Thought He Would Die.

Dong Gong, the Chinese leper patient at the St. Louis Quarantine Hospital, is recommended for discharge as cured by Dr. M. C. Woodruff, superintendent of the hospital. In a letter to Health Commissioner Starkloff, received Thursday morning, Dr. Woodruff writes: "The condition of Dong Gong, a patient sent to this institution Nov. 6, 1901, with leprosy, has progressed so favorably that he would designate Dr. G. A. Jordan, of the City Dispensary staff and Dr. Engelmann, who made the diagnosis of leprosy, to visit the patient and report at once upon his condition.

WAS THOUGHT INCURABLE.
The health commissioner said that if the report is favorable he will order the discharge of Dong Gong, who was sent to quarantine less than a year ago with the expectation that he would die of the disease.

Dong Gong, who was a laundryman on Easton avenue, called at Dr. Engelmann's clinic at Loma and Carlton avenues for examination. Dr. Engelmann reported to the city authorities that the Chinaman was suffering from leprosy. The diagnosis was confirmed by Dr. Jordan and other physicians.

A leprosy ward, sequestered from the other quarantine buildings, was built for the patient. Dr. Woodruff began a method of treatment which, a few months ago, caused the patient to show such improvement that the physician declared he believed the leper would be permanently cured.

EVANGELISM IN STREET CAR "ADS"

Little Sermons on the Advertising Placards.

WEALTHY ST. LOUISAN'S PLAN

HAS PAID REGULAR RATES TO DISPLAY SCRIPTURAL TEXTS.

Has Made a Contract With the Street Car Advertising Company for the Display of Cards in 200 Cars for Six Months.

Sermons are being preached every day of the week to thousands of street car passengers by placards which appear in the panels devoted to advertising, each bearing a text of the Scripture.

A St. Louis millionaire is responsible for the new method of spreading religious teaching. He has made a contract with the company which has charge of the display of cards for the display of the cards for six months.

The cards appear in 200 cars, distributed among the different divisions of the St. Louis and North St. Louis lines. The usual rates were paid in advance to the advertising company, the cost of the cards being about $100.

Each card has a heading, and all the texts are from the most distinctive evangelistic parts of the New Testament.

One of the cards reads: GOD'S RECIPE FOR ETERNAL LIFE. He that heareth my word and believeth on him that sent me, hath everlasting life, and shall not come into condemnation; but is passed from death into life.—St. John 1:23.

BODY ARRIVES FROM TRIESTE.

Funeral of Christopher Ehlen will Take Place Sunday.

The funeral of Christopher Ehlen, who died on the steamer Cleopatra, between Alexandria and Trieste, will be held Sunday afternoon at Ebenezer Lutheran Church. The remains arrived in the city Wednesday, having been shipped from Trieste. Mr. Ehlen resided at 208 McNair avenue, and was a native of St. Louis. He was on his way to Europe and the Holy Land, and was crossing the Mediterranean, when Mr. Ehlen died from an apoplexy stroke. The American consul at Trieste attended to the shipment of the body to St. Louis.

Mr. Ehlen was a Mason and an Odd Fellow. A widow and one daughter, Mrs. Louise Schimmerling, survive him.

THE LODGES.

Do you know anything about lodges? Knock me down a few questions. Name the biggest lodge in the United States.

Henry Cabot. Where would you look for Gov. Stone? Among the Masons.

That's odd, fellow. Who are the Hoo-Hoo's?

The Who-Whose. Ah, he doesn't know. It is one of those mysterious orders of which so little is known that every lodgeman who sees the next Sunday Post-Dispatch will be fascinated with the story of a little-known order which is going to do a unique work in St. Louis.

Henson, Reuben, I've been thinking what a bore this world would be if the women, all together, went to an island in the sea.

Cynthia, Cynthia, I've a notion if the men were given the ship in this manner, they would straightway go to work and build a ship.

There is a St. Louis community without any women in it, but the men are not building a ship. What are they doing? Oh, that's another story. You will find it in the next Sunday Post-Dispatch.

Slenskiwitchocki, recently come from his native Poland, peered out of his window into the dark night and was startled to make out the figure of a man standing silent there on the sidewalk.

"Is that you, Stowalski?" "You betaki."

Slenskiwitchocki crept back to his bed, saying in a nervous tone to his wife: "It is nothing, my dear; only the policeman on our beat."

For that is one thing about St. Louis: It polices a foreign quarter with men of the same nationality. Another thing—well, the way to get the whole story is to buy next Sunday Post-Dispatch.

I know where Mr. Kelly's bed is. It's on the top of the house.

Because of it he's often read: "It has no folk upon it."

Mr. Folk has scattered them to the four winds, for which reason the next Sunday Post-Dispatch is going to tell some things not known of Mr. Folk; but he has not driven to the enchanted Isle of Pines, the St. Louisan whose illustrated story of this garden spot of the seas will be published in the next Sunday Post-Dispatch.

The melancholy days are come; My garden plums and daisies It may not ever know at all That that has been a prize.

Not fan it and bathe it with cold water until the next Sunday Post-Dispatch gets to you. It is going to announce the winners in the Sunday Post-Dispatch garden contest. There are 14 prizes, the first being $20 in gold. Fourteen life gardeners will find their names on the list next Sunday, and the joy of them will only be equaled by the determination of the boys and girls who do not get a prize to go to work next year and make a better garden.

Henry Waterson recently started the country with a scathing arraignment of the Four Hundred. Almost simultaneously an English writer did the same thing for the upper stratum in English society. This man is now in the United States, and his own opinions and those of Mr. Waterson are to be extensively published in the next Sunday Post-Dispatch. The story is not entitled "Four Hundred Reasons Why One Ought to be Glad to Be Out of the Four Hundred," but it might be titled that.

The funmakers who have made the comic supplement of the Sunday Post-Dispatch the funniest thing under the sun will be out next Sunday in such reveals of merriment that Clarence the Cop will with difficulty restrain them.

FELL OVER STEEP PRECIPICE.

Mr. and Mrs. Porter of St. Louis Landed Safely on Rock Ledge—

Horse Killed.

Dr. and Mrs. S. Porter, who are now visiting their son, Attorney V. Mott Porter of 361 Washington boulevard, had, during their recent journey in Colorado, an adventure which, if it were reduced to novel or melodrama, would be pronounced impossible and absurd.

"A 'canyon' where a careless lively man had furnished to Dr. Porter and his wife, fell over a steep precipice, carrying the buggy with him. The occupants of the buggy went over the precipice together, and both were caught on a projecting ledge of rock, where, uninjured, they could look far below them and see the dead horse and the wrecked buggy in the top of a tall pine.

"I closed my eyes as we went over the edge of the cliff," said Mrs. Porter, in describing her experience. "I said to myself, 'This is death.' But when I opened my eyes, I saw that the doctor had also fallen on the same projection and that he had fallen thirty-five feet below the roadway. We were both bruised and bleeding and the doctor was stunned, but, strange to say, no bones were broken.

"We were rescued by men passing down the mountain and were taken to a cabin, where we could get only whisky.

"The horse which fell over the precipice with us was, as we learned, a 'cussed' animal, which had contracted a disease common in that section from eating the loco plant. This causes animals to become wheezy and finally to have fits. The miners expressed a wish to lynch the liverman for renting the animal to us, but we dissuaded them."

SAW NO SHOTS FIRED.

Judge Siderer Ruled Out Hear-Shot Evidence in Court.

Jerry Kahler, Clark avenue saloon keeper and Four Courts bartender, who was arrested after a rampage in the vicinity of his establishment, in which his wife ran from their apartments and Kahler rushed into the street with a smoking revolver in his hand, was discharged by Judge Siderer of the City Hall Police Court Thursday.

Kahler was charged with having fired several shots from his revolver. Policemen Bryant, Greeley and Shea, who arrested and disarmed him behind his bar after a struggle, testified that they did not see him fire the shots, though they heard the reports of the weapon.

Officer Bryant also said that the pistol was not when he wrested it from Kahler's hand.

Judge Siderer held that the charge was not proved, the officers not having seen the shots fired.

MONEY WILL DO IT"—PEARY.

Arctic Explorer Says Two Hundred Thousand Dollars Would Take Him to the North Pole.

PORTLAND, Me., Sept. 25.—Lieut. R. E. Peary, the arctic explorer, has arrived here.

In an interview he said: "I make an effort to return to the North. I have done all that could be done with the facilities at my command and I shall now resume my duties in the navy, reporting to the department at Washington in a few days."

"The pole can be reached. It is a question of money and of the explorer's outfit. Could I have put my ship as far north as I intended and as I could have done had I been equal to the requirements, I could have made the pole."

"Possibly had I covered the 30 miles I turned back and the pole might have nothing to add to our information as to the extreme polar conditions. We can very well conjecture conditions surrounding the pole."

"I am confident it is the green; that is, no land is there."

"Money will do it—money in the right hands. I have thirty-five feet below the roadway. We were both bruised and bleeding and the doctor was stunned, but, strange to say, no bones were broken."

"We were rescued by men passing down the mountain and were taken to a cabin, where we could get only whisky."

"We were rescued by men passing down the mountain and were taken to a cabin, where we could get only whisky."

"The horse which fell over the precipice with us was, as we learned, a 'cussed' animal, which had contracted a disease common in that section from eating the loco plant. This causes animals to become wheezy and finally to have fits. The miners expressed a wish to lynch the liverman for renting the animal to us, but we dissuaded them."

"I closed my eyes as we went over the edge of the cliff," said Mrs. Porter, in describing her experience. "I said to myself, 'This is death.' But when I opened my eyes, I saw that the doctor had also fallen on the same projection and that he had fallen thirty-five feet below the roadway. We were both bruised and bleeding and the doctor was stunned, but, strange to say, no bones were broken."

ACID WAS DASHED FROM HER HAND

MISS MEYER FAILED IN ATTEMPT AT SUICIDE.

LIQUID SPILLED OVER HER

Her Face, Arms and Hands Severely Burned—Had Quarreled With Her Employer.

Miss Eva Meyer attempted to kill herself at 2874 Olive street Wednesday night, with carbolic acid. Her employer was in the room at the time, and it is presumed that he dashed the liquid from her hand before she could swallow it. For it spilled over her husband.

Her face, neck, arms and hands were severely burned, and the young man rushed to the sidewalk, where he excitedly called for the police, who arrived some time afterward. Two physicians were summoned and so was an ambulance, but Miss Meyer declined to go to the City Hospital. At 2 o'clock Thursday morning she was removed to the Rebecca Hospital by her friends, who tried to keep the affair a secret. Mrs. Gray, her landlady, declared that she knew nothing of the matter, and her physician declined to discuss it.

Miss Meyer is a china decorator and has been going with her employer for five years. They have quarreled frequently, and it was after one of these that she purchased the poison. She told a friend that she intended killing herself with it, and then denied it. When she was being carried from the house she said she was sorry she had not finished the job.

She is 25 years old. Last spring she left from a street car window on Olive street when a fuse burst out suddenly, and later used the transit company. A few days ago she applied for a warrant against an employee of the Pozzoni building, with whom she had had a fight, and who was badly scratched with some sharp instrument.

WORN OUT, DRAGGED OUT, LOVERS KEPT A Are Most Women in Summer—Pe-ru-na Is a Tonic of Efficiency.

JOSEPHINE MORRIS, 236 Carroll St., Brooklyn, N. Y., writes:

"Peruna is a fine medicine to take any time of the year, but I have found it especially helpful to withstand the wear and tear of the hot weather. I have taken it now for two summers and feel that it has kept my system free from malaria, and also kept me from having that worn-out, dragged-out look which so many women have."

"I therefore have no hesitancy in saying that I think it is the finest tonic in the world."—Josephine Morris.

Peruna is frequently used as a mitigation of the effects of hot weather. What a bath is to the skin, Peruna is to the mucous membranes. Bathing keeps the skin healthy, Peruna makes the mucous membranes clean and healthy. With the skin and mucous membranes in good working order, hot weather can be withstood with very little suffering.

Frequent bathing with an occasional use of Peruna is sure to mitigate the horrors of hot weather. Many ladies have discovered that the depression of hot weather and the rigors they have been in the habit of attributing to malaria, quickly disappear when they use Peruna. This is why Peruna is so popular with them. Peruna provides clean mucous membranes, and the clean mucous membranes do the rest. Hon. T. Y. Fitzpatrick, Congressman from Kentucky, writes from the National Hotel, Washington, D. C., as follows:

Josephine Morris.

"At the solicitation of a friend I used your Peruna and can cheerfully recommend your remedy to anyone suffering with catarrh or who needs a good tonic."

—T. Y. Fitzpatrick.
If you do not derive prompt and satisfactory results from the use of Peruna write at once to Dr. Hartman, giving a full statement of your case, and he will be pleased to give you his valuable advice gratis.

MIDWEEK GOSSIP OF THE THEATERS

THE BABY OF THE BURGOMASTER COMPANY

URSULA MARCH.

Little Ursula March, who plays Daisy, the gay soubrette, with "The Burgomaster" Company this season, which opens a week's engagement at the Century Theater Sunday, has gained the title of the most graceful dancer on the American stage. This little miss wears several handsome and costly medals won in dancing contests throughout the country. As a child it was her hobby to follow street pianos, and early one morning she followed one of these in New York from her home on Forty-fifth street to Central Park, where she fell exhausted. She was picked up by a park policeman and rescued by her worried parents through a general alarm sent out from police headquarters. She is still proud of retaining some of that "harum-scarum" spirit, and many are the practical jokes played on the members of "The Burgomaster" Company while in transit from town to town.

There are a number of striking scenes in "At Cripple Creek" at Havlin's this week, but one of the best of them all is the underground effect obtained at the bottom of a shaft of the "Last Dollar" mine. The cast is a good one and the scenic settings are perfect as they can be made. For the coming week the scene of the play at Havlin's shifts to the South, in the good old days of southern chivalry, at the time when the Suwanee river was brought into both the poetic and the song history of the country. "On the Suwanee River" is the title of the play. Miss Stella Mayberry, who created the character of the old colored mammy in the part of "Aunt Lindy," is to be seen again in that role.

The great Burmese foot jugglers known as the Mount Toot Trio are creating a genuine sensation this week at the Columbia. They are the following: Johnstone Bennett and company; Billy Clifford; Clayton Jenkins and Jasper; the Three Navarros; Dillon Brothers; Roberts, Hays and Roberts; Paloma Lady Quartet; Angie Norton, Collins and Madril; Dan and Dollie Mann; Dodd's Dog and Rossie and Rosette.

"The Topsy Turvy Burlesquers" in two highly amusing burlesques and an exceedingly strong vaudeville olio, with a chorus of twenty handsome women, and the most excellent company are pleasing large audiences with their unusually good work.

Kellar, at the Century, is doing a better business this season than in any previous season.

A new creation in the sensational comedy entitled "Her Marriage Vow," in which she said there is nothing lacking in the way of incident or situation to cause the audience to the limit of nervous excitement. While the play has many scenes, it is said to be invested with a strong heart interest story, "man" is drawing large-sized week and thoroughly amuses the devotedly constituted company of a theatrical company.

York coming to the next Sunday, deserves a green musical play "can be attached to be presented at the Imperial Theater. While the play has many scenes, it is said to be invested with a strong heart interest story, "man" is drawing large-sized week and thoroughly amuses the devotedly constituted company of a theatrical company.

DISINHERITANCE WAS PENALTY FOR DISOBEDIENCE.

But Jermyn Married Butcher's Daughter Anyway, Kept Fact Secret and Will Share in Stern Parents' $10,000,000.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.

OSWEGO, N. Y., Sept. 23.—It was one thing to give up his pretty sweetheart of humble parentage and another to see $2,000,000 taken from him by his father when he did and, between the two, Walter M. Jermyn thought it a nice kettle of fish.

The way he solved the problem was made known today, when his marriage to Lena Kehoe more than three years ago, was announced and steps were taken to secure for him the $2,000,000 which was left to him by his father, John Jermyn, a coal operator who died in Scranton a few months ago.

It was a $2,000,000 secret, which the young couple have kept for three years. Young Jermyn fell mightily in love with Miss Kehoe when he first came to Oswego four years ago to establish large boiler works. She was one of the sweetest girls in town, the daughter of a meat dealer, and Jermyn became a frequent caller at her humble home. They attracted much attention in the gorgeous turn-outs which Jermyn was able to command.

Then Jermyn, Sr., head of a family of great wealth and social prominence, learned how matters were going. He said Walter must give up his suit of disinheritance would be his lot.

So the carriage drives ceased and it was believed among their friends that the $2,000,000 had outweighed young Jermyn's love for the fair daughter of the meat dealer.

But the young couple did meet, although none was the wiser, and at least one carriage drive was taken after the paternal edict had gone forth. This was behind a fast train, drawing a closed carriage, which stopped at the residence of Rev. George Ward, at Vermillion, a few miles east of Oswego.

Jermyn and Miss Kehoe were married there June 2, 1899.

Then began the keeping of the secret, which was successful.

John Jermyn left $10,000,000, and by the terms of the will, Walter Jermyn will receive one-fifth of this—and he's got his bride already.

WILL USE GROOVED RAILS.

Transit Company Will Probably Employ Them in Future Construction.

Transit company officials are contemplating the use of the grooved rail for reconstruction of its various branches on which the present rails will become worn out in a few years.

The grooved rails have the advantage of presenting an even surface, and will not admit the wheels of heavy wagons, which now are a factor in breaking down tracks and causing rails to spread apart.

The grooved rail has a depression in which the flange of the car wheel is carried.

The weight is carried on the elevated portion, known as the "T." The groove is an inch and one-fourth deep. It has been tested by Superintendent John Grant says that the transit company will probably use the grooved rail on any work of construction which it may next undertake.

HOW COMBINE MEN WERE

BRIBED & REBIBED

Uthoff Tells All About the Central Traction Steal.

LAW OF LIMITATIONS NO BAR

MR. FOLK CONFIDENT THAT E. M. SNYDER WILL BE TRIED.

Much Vital Evidence Said to Have Been Brought Forth in the Grand Jury Room—Some May Be Tried for Perjury, If Nothing Else.

In the private office of Circuit Attorney Folk Thursday numerous witnesses who are to play important roles in the trial of Robert M. Snyder in the court of Judge O'Neill Ryan, beginning next Monday, were being examined.

Mr. Folk nor any of the court officers will discuss the testimony that has been prepared, yet enough has developed to show that the half has not been told in the grand jury room. The Central Traction bribery that was exposed four years ago by the Post-Dispatch.

ONE CONTINGENCY.
Only one contingency will prevent the entire transaction being told in open court, and on that one contingency depends the outcome of the Snyder trial.

The statute of limitation is the only question at issue that may prevent the telling of the whole story in open court and the indictment of certain members of the Council combine on charges of perjury. Mr. Folk is confident that the statute of limitation does not apply to Snyder, who, as told often, was the railroad agent who distributed the vast amount of "boodle" that bought the Municipal Assembly and made the consolidation of all the street railways possible.

Snyder, Mr. Folk says he will be able to show, has been in New York the greater part of the time since the passing of the Central Traction bill, and the circuit attorney anticipates no difficulty in showing to the satisfaction of the jury that New York has really been Snyder's abode, and as a consequence the statute of limitation will not apply.

BOODLE AGAINST BOODLE.

The Central Traction fight was a conflict of boodle against boodle. Large sums of money were used to bribe council members to vote against the bill and fabulous amounts were spent by Snyder to buy members who had already been bought by the other side.

All members of the Council combine have been witnesses before the grand jury. Frederick G. Uthoff, who was a member of the combine, and who stood in the same position in relation to the Central Traction fight, was examined at great length. The testimony that he gave was given in the grand jury room, and also in the grand jury room, and also in the grand jury room.

It will be remembered that during the recent session of the present grand jury Paulus Gust, Henry Gust, Jr., Charles Carroll and Charles H. Thurner, all members of the council at the time of the passage of the famous Central Traction measure, were examined at great length. It will also be recalled that these four gentlemen were heard in the grand jury room, and also in the grand jury room, and also in the grand jury room.

IN THE GRAND JURY ROOM.

At the time it was thought the jury was investigating. Surviving Mr. Uthoff, it has since developed that the Central Traction measure was under discussion as well. And while the statute of limitations will not prevent any prosecution on the charge of bribery against any of the members of the Council combine, the statute of limitations will not prevent any prosecution on the charge of bribery against any of the members of the Council combine.

MR. FOLK IS CONFIDENT.

It is surmised that one of the features developed by the investigation is the falsity of the statement of a certain prominent politician who once boasted that when he received his bribe he always delivered the goods. This same politician, however, the side that was circumvented and defeated by the shrewd Mr. Snyder, who, by the way, the legislative manipulator at his own game and successfully planned and executed the biggest and most disgraceful piece of corruption bribery that was ever perpetrated in St. Louis.

Even more startling testimony is known to have been uncovered, and the whole will be told in open court next week, provided always that the court upholds Mr. Folk's contention that the statute of limitation does not apply to Snyder. The circuit attorney smiles in a knowing way when asked how he expects to prove that the jury he is confident that his contention will be upheld.

Paine's Celery Compound

Cures a Lady Who Was Told That Her Life Depended Upon a Surgical Operation.

The greatest misfortune of the present generation is that wives and mothers are so frequently unfitted for the duties of life and domestic enjoyment, by reason of broken down health and overtaxed systems. The duties of women of all ages are really more worrying and wearing than the troubles met with by men. Social, household, and often business cares press upon women very heavily. In this way the deranged nerves and sensitive organs become deranged, suffering ensues, and life becomes a burden that many carry to the grave.

For the special weaknesses to which women so often fall victims, medical science has provided Paine's Celery Compound. This famed medicine has specific powers for correcting the disorders of the female organism; it maintains health, gives strength, vivacity, and good looks, and imparts to the body the elasticity of girlhood. No other medicine can so quickly banish and permanently cure painful and obdurate feminine ills. Mrs. L. S. Long of Flint, Mich., says:

"For twenty-five years I have been a great sufferer from insomnia, never obtaining more than four nights' sleep a week. For sixteen years life has been a burden to me because of prolapsus uteri, whose tortures no words can describe, and from which no physician gave me any hopes of relief except by an operation. I have also for years been troubled with rheumatism to such an extent in my right shoulder as to nearly disable me."

"Last February I was induced to try Paine's Celery Compound in hopes that relief from insomnia and rheumatism might be obtained. After using three bottles of the Compound, the rheumatism was better, I could sleep like a child, and, strange of all, my uterine trouble was cured."

TOOK 30 YEARS TO SETTLE MORSE WILL

ESTATE OF TELEGRAPH INVENTOR JUST DISTRIBUTED.

LEFT OVER HALF A MILLION

Administration Expenses Were Nearly $200,000, While Amount Given to Heirs Was $346,000.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.
NEW YORK, Sept. 25.—It has taken 30 years, being about a settlement and distribution of the estate of Samuel Finley Breese Morse, inventor of the telegraph, whose death occurred on April 2, 1872. The distribution of the estate was made but recently, pursuant to a decision of the Supreme Court, and less than a half million dollars has been paid out in accordance with the provisions of the will, which was executed but a few months prior to his death.

Surviving Mr. Morse were a widow, Sarah Elizabeth Morse, and Susan Walker Lind, Charles Walker Morse, James Edwards, Finley Morse, Samuel A. B. Morse, Cornelia I. Morse, William Goodrich Morse and Edward Lind Morse, children. By the terms of his will he appointed Thomas R. Walker, Henry Day and Arthur R. Frost executors and trustees, leaving his entire estate to them as trustees to collect the income and pay it over to his wife for life.

Upon her death he directed that the principal be divided into eight parts, seven portions to go to his children and the remaining eighth to be used for education and other purposes. His gross estate was valued at $524,000. The widow died on Nov. 14 last, in Berlin, Germany.

Messrs. Holmes and Prosser took an active interest in the estate for about four years, resigning their trusts in 1876, and Mr. Day continued as sole trustee down to 1888, when the Mercantile Trust Co. was appointed trustee, and has since been administering the final distribution of the estate.

Other gifts which have been paid in accordance with the provisions of the will are: $100,000 to the Fougere-Keane, $100,000 to the trustees of Princeton University, to found two chairs, to be called the Finley and Breese Morse chairs, $100,000 to the American Geographical Society, for a suitable medal for the encouragement of geographical research, $100,000 to the trustees of the University of the City of New York, to procure a suitable medal as a reward for scholarship, $100,000.

Peter Benoit, the Flemish composer, will have a statue in Antwerp.

THE PRESIDENT IS FEELING WELL

Hopes to Be Out Within Ten Days. But Enterprising Druggist Came to Grief.

AT TEMPORARY WHITE HOUSE NO FEVER AND TEMPERATURE IS NORMAL.

Mr. Roosevelt Is Sorry That His Trip to the West Had to Be Abandoned and Expects to Make the Tour Next Spring.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 25.—The President expects to be out again within ten days and is feeling well. He is lodged at the temporary White House and is under the care of Mrs. Roosevelt. He has no fever and his temperature is normal.

The President has made known his determination to visit the Northwest next spring, when he will extend his trip as far as the coast, during which time he will visit all the states in which he intended to stop on the trip just ended.

The President is feeling very close to the people of the Northwest, as many years of his life were spent in that section, and it was here that he met the Northwesters at the outbreak of the Spanish-American war. He will allow nothing to stand in the way of his going there next spring.

The President passed a comfortable night and ate his breakfast with great relish this morning. After breakfast, Dr. Riker, surgeon-general of the navy, and Dr. Lusk, surgeon-general of the army, and Dr. Lusk made an examination of the President and reported that it was in a satisfactory condition. They expect the inflammation to be allayed without consulting a physician. The President has been enjoying upon their distinguished guests.

The President is in excellent spirits, but has acquiesced in the decision of his physicians for the present. The announcement is made that he will not allow visitors save the members of his cabinet. He has only on the most important matters.

It is the desire of the President that the public should be informed of his condition, but there is a natural reluctance against the disclosure of his condition, and the importance and gravity of the matter might be magnified. It is not unlikely, however, that Secretary Cortelyou occasionally may issue a statement, if for no other reason than to dispose of circulating rumors.

Possible complications can arise only if it should happen that the bones of the leg are injured. A contingency not now anticipated.

The President did not leave his bed this morning, but sat up and read a book. Secretaries Shaw, Wilson and Hitchcock found him reading with great interest. He looked as hale and hearty as he ever did. Secretaries Shaw and Wilson returned only this morning from Chicago, where they were to have met the President.

THE PRESIDENTIAL SUCCESSION

May Would Take Executive Chair in Case of Death or Disability of Roosevelt.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 25.—In the case of the death or inability of President Roosevelt to perform his duties, Secretary Hay stands next in rank. The law governing this point is an act of Congress entitled "An act to provide for the performance of the duties of the office of President in case of the removal, resignation or death of the President and vice-president."

The act provides that in case of the death, resignation or inability of the President and vice-president of the United States the succession shall be by the members of the cabinet in the order: the secretary of state, the secretary of the treasury, the secretary of war, the attorney general, the postmaster general, the secretary of the interior.

Another section of this act provides that this succession shall apply to those officers only who are eligible to the office of President under the constitution, and are not under impeachment by the House of Representatives at the time the powers and duties of the office shall devolve upon them.

The first duty of such officer on succeeding to the office of President shall be to call Congress in extra session with a notice of 20 days. Congress shall not meet in session or adjourn or meet in accordance with law until the President has taken the oath of office.

As it is held that this law does not provide for a successor to the President with the title of President, the President's performance of the duties of the office, a bill was introduced at the last session of Congress by Representative John C. Spooner of Wisconsin which provided an entirely different method of filling the office in case of the death or removal of the President and Vice-President. This bill was not acted upon, although it was discussed at some length in committee.

It provided that in the case of the death of the President or the death of the two officers named the President pro tem, (a cabinet secretary) should succeed to the presidency. On his succession it should be the duty of the Senate to immediately elect another President pro tem, who in the case of the death of the President, should take his place. The bill expressly stipulated he should have the title of President. The bill further provided against any contingency by stipulating that in case the Senate did not elect a successor to the President pro tem, who had been elevated to the office of President, that the oldest member of the body in point of service should succeed to that office without election.

WANTED TO KEEP IT SECRET.

A. D. Barrett of Memphis, Brought His Bride to East St. Louis.

A. D. Barrett, 24 years old, and Mrs. Hattie Kettwell, 25 years old, both of Memphis, Tenn., were married Wednesday afternoon in East St. Louis. The bride had come to East St. Louis to get married because they did not want their friends to know about it.

Mrs. Kettwell arrived in East St. Louis on an early morning train and went to the Wiles Hotel on Missouri avenue. She had breakfast there and remained there until nearly noon, when Mr. Barrett arrived on an Illinois Central train. The couple ate dinner and were married in the hotel.

A telegram from Memphis states that Barrett is well known there, but that his wife is supposed to reside elsewhere.

KING BOODIE MAKES THIS CROWD LOOK CHEAP

The robbers of the ages. With jealousy a-tremble. At which their anger rages. In turbid mood assemble. Are branded deep forever. In savage rage condemn. The fiend who has robbed them.

Dick Turpin, Tweed, Jack Sheppard. And other robbers clever. Who, like the spotted leopard. Are branded deep forever. In savage rage condemn. The fiend who has robbed them.

They had a reputation. And first of handits stood. But now their occupation. Is gone—they are no good. And to our Boodle King. Bow down—the Real Thing!

TRIED TO MAKE RECORD: QUEENSTOWN TO ST. LOUIS

UNITED STATES ATLANTIC OCEAN IRELAND

DR. CHAS. DIGGES, 3654 PAGE AVE.

He breakfasted at Queenstown Sept. 14 and dined at St. Louis Sept. 21—Visited His Mother at Dublin.

Dr. Charles J. S. Digges breakfasted in Queenstown, Ireland, Sunday morning, Sept. 14.

Dr. Digges dined at his home, 3654 Page avenue, Sunday evening, Sept. 21.

It was his aim to make a record-breaking trip from Ireland to St. Louis by breakfasting in St. Louis last Sunday morning. His failure to reach St. Louis in time to perform this feat he ascribes to a fog.

He sailed on the Lucania from Queenstown Sunday morning. At noon Friday the doctor says she was only 99 miles from New York. At the speed she was traveling the first train west at 2 o'clock Saturday afternoon, arriving in St. Louis at 6 o'clock Sunday evening.

In the week he had covered about 600 miles.

Sailing the Atlantic is not new to Dr. Digges. He has visited his old home in Dublin four times coming to St. Louis in 1878, but prior to that he was a surgeon on an Atlantic steamship.

His aged mother still resides there. The photograph of Dr. Digges accompanying this publication was taken by his brother-in-law, John Ruthven of Dublin, during the visit.

BRITISH RESENT BOER APPEAL

London Papers Say Its Tone Is Calculated to Alienate All Sympathy in England.

LONDON, Sept. 25.—The tone and contents of the manifesto of the Boer generals, which was issued in the form of an appeal to the civilized world for contributions to assist destitute Boers and help in the education of Boer children, excited the utmost resentment of the whole British press and the British public. The Boer appeal, which had hitherto been felt for the Boer people in many quarters, is now regarded as a manifesto of hostility to Great Britain, and the work, not of generals, but of the Boer people, and the work, not of the Boer people, but of the Boer people.

The statement contained in the manifesto declared that 30,000 houses have been burned and destroyed, that the Boer people are in a state of destitution, and that the British government is responsible for the situation.

The Standard contents that a friendly appeal to the generosity of the British people would be more productive than such an angry appeal to foreigners.

Referring this morning to Henry Phillips' gift to the Boers, the Morning Post expressed the wish that some representative of America might be appointed to the committee to administer the gift, because it would be a good thing for some responsible American to see for himself the condition of the new colonies and the great efforts being made by official and unofficial means to relieve the hardships of the Boer women and children.

In an editorial article the Times says: "It is unfortunate that the correspondence concerning the Boer manifesto appears simultaneously with the Boer appeal, because Gen. Botha's very dignified and correct letter accepting Mr. Phillips' gift supplies a necessary corrective to the statements in the manifesto. It is a pity that the Boer generals are being misled, consciously or unconsciously, to carry out an invidious design to undermine British power in South Africa."

REDMOND MUST BE GOOD.

Ordered to Give Bond or Go to Prison.

DUBLIN, Sept. 25.—The Court of King's Bench has ordered William H. Redmond, M. P., who was summoned to appear before it as a result of his recent incendiary speech at Wexford, to give bail in 1000 for his future good behavior. As Mr. Redmond did not appear the court ordered his arrest. The court said that in default Redmond would be imprisoned for six months.

SECRETARY SHAW HOTEL BLOWN UP

Rumors of Differences With President Are Current. Man Who Exploded Bomb Shoots Himself.

AT OUTS ON TARIFF ISSUE PROPRIETOR AND WIFE HURT

IOWAN'S FINANCIERING ALSO WORRIES EXECUTIVE. THE ACT WAS CAUSED BY DESIRE FOR REVENGE.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 25.—The Golden Eagle Hotel, on the corner of New Jersey avenue and D street, was blown up by dynamite at 1:30 o'clock. It is alleged by Frank McKee, one of the guests, who subsequently committed suicide, that between 20 and 30 guests were thrown from their beds by the explosion, but only the proprietor, Louis Brandt, and his wife were injured, the latter seriously. The floor of the building was blown off and the falling wreckage crashed through to the basement, leaving the structure as if wrecked by a tornado.

Every pane of glass in the building and the adjoining structures was broken. The explosion called out the fire department. The proprietor gave a banquet last night in honor of his wife, who had just returned from Germany, and McKee was a guest. During the evening McKee and Brandt quarreled over the former's attentions to Mrs. Brandt, and McKee left the hotel with threats of revenge.

He returned about 11 o'clock and is said to have exploded the dynamite in the room above that occupied by Brandt and his wife, subsequently shooting himself in the head. McKee was about 28 years of age, had a fair complexion, and was a native of Philadelphia. He came here several years ago from Philadelphia. A member of the Brandt family stated that he had lost considerable money at the races recently and had a great irritation. It is said that he was employed at one time in the navy yard here.

McKee had boarded at the hotel four years and had been treated as a member of the Brandt family. He had a daughter, Sophie, with whom McKee is said to have been in love. Brandt denies that there was any understanding between the two. McKee remarked last night that he was going to take a vacation from Germany with her mother and then was going to his old home in Philadelphia.

McKee was seen by a hotel employee about 8 o'clock last night. The attempt at wholesale murder followed. It was seen by an employee of a luncheon room opposite the hotel that McKee was seen to enter the building and reach the part of the building in which McKee's room was located. McKee with revolver clutched in his hand was lying on the floor with his head in a pool of blood. A bullet hole near the right ear had caused instant death.

Brandt was bruised about the body and abdomen, and received a severe cut on the left leg.

Mrs. Brandt sustained bruises about the body and a cut hand. When the wrecked building was searched today, enough dynamite was found to blow up a block of buildings. There were six whole sticks and parts of three broken sticks, together with a box of caps and a quantity of wire for long-distance explosion. There were at least nine sticks of dynamite in his possession.

SHAW ANNOUNCES PLAN

Secretary of Treasury Would Recall Government Bonds to Relieve Money Situation.

A private telegram to a local brokerage firm from Washington at 1 o'clock today, says: Secretary Shaw announces that in order to relieve money he would offer to anticipate all government bonds interest maturing between Oct. 1 and end of fiscal year, June 30, 1903, at a rebate to the government of two-eighths per cent, which is at rate of 2 1/2 per cent per annum. The amount maturing before June 30, 1903, is in round numbers $20,000,000.

He has already anticipated the October interest. The plan to government if the offer is accepted by the business community will be in round numbers $20,000,000.

FELL DOWN ELEVATOR HATCH.

C. H. Richards Sustained Injuries to Ankles and Head.

While repairing an elevator in the store of the St. Louis Shoe Co., at 1013 Washington avenue, C. H. Richards of 2214 Olive street, fell from the hatch of the new building and fell 15 feet into the basement.

He alighted upon his feet, but his head struck against an obstruction. Both ankles were severely injured and a head wound was lacerated. He was taken to the City Hospital.

SCNETTLER OUT OF JAIL

BUT THIS DOESN'T MEAN AT LIBERTY.

IN CHARGE OF TWO DEPUTIES

He Was Seeking to Secure the $45,000 Bond Necessary to Regain Temporary Freedom.

John H. Schnettler was permitted to leave the jail in the custody of two deputy sheriffs, Thursday morning. He had made application last Wednesday afternoon to Judge Douglas for permission to visit his family and to search for bondsmen, and the court made an order allowing him a leave of two hours.

It was reported that his wife was in ill health and the alleged hoodler believed that he was able to approach his friends in person, he might be able to secure the bond necessary to regain his temporary freedom. The deputy sheriffs were to accompany him wherever he went and at 3 o'clock he was released under this guard.

It was reported later at the sheriff's office that if in the opinion of the accompanying deputies, it was safe to permit him to remain out longer, or if, in their judgment, a few moments more of liberty might result in his securing bondsmen, they had the privilege of permitting him to extend his leave for a reasonable time after the two hours and expired, however, they were at liberty to exercise their own judgment as to whether or not he should be immediately re-arrested.

Only Son Will Forfeit Legacy of Fifty Thousand Dollars in Hope of Gaining a Greater Sum.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo., Sept. 23.—Isaac Henry Stratton, only child of W. S. Stratton, who made millions at Cripple Creek and left a will at his death recently, giving nearly $15,000,000 to charity and only $50,000 to his son, has decided to contest the will on the ground that his father's mind was not sound when the document was executed.

Under the will, if he contests it, he shall forfeit the legacy left to him.

All the heirs here are noncommittal on the son's decision. It is said that Stratton's attorney will receive a fee of $1,000,000 if he succeeds in breaking the will.

Yesterday's Results. AMERICAN LEAGUE. Philadelphia 7-6, Baltimore 5-4. Washington 8, Boston 2. St. Louis-Chicago, rain. Detroit-Cleveland, rain.

Today's Schedules. AMERICAN LEAGUE. St. Louis at Chicago. Detroit at Cleveland. Boston at Washington. Baltimore at Philadelphia.

NATIONAL LEAGUE. St. Louis at Cincinnati.

After a race which probably has never been excelled in big league circles, the Philadelphia club finally has secured a lead which is as good as to guarantee it first place, no matter which way the remaining games of the season fall.

By twice defeating Baltimore yesterday the Athletics turned the trick that ended the contest for first place. For two weeks it has been practically a certainty that this result would come, but still a miracle might have put St. Louis in first position.

On paper the Athletics did not seem to have the material from which champions are made. It was handicapped to begin with by the loss of Edd Roush, and then by the absence of Lajoie. The players were prevented from playing with the American League Philadelphia team by the court order.

WADDELL'S GREAT WORK. When he secured the last-named person he laid the foundation for his championship honors. In fact without the services of that pitcher the Athletics would have been hard put to run second.

Waddell pitched 30 games for the Athletics and won 23 of them—a percentage which will bring his season's work close to that of Cy Young of Boston, in the race for first place among the league's pitchers.

For no other manager in the country has Waddell done the work that he has for Mack. Economic and hard to manage, he has always broken away from the restraint of pitching under pressure and it was predicted when Mack secured him that he would win the league before many weeks had passed.

Mack, however, wisely left Waddell pitch whenever that player felt like it and the result justified his course.

Murphy, Wilson and Schreckengost, also picked up to fill in, turned out to be winners, and if not Bernards or Lajoie, still did satisfactory work.

The victory of the Athletics is a triumph for good management. The Quakers were essentially not a team of stars and good generalship and a pull-together spirit only brought the club out first.

St. Louis and Boston were close competitors at all times, and appeared to have Philadelphia beaten between them. When the Quakers started out by losing four straight games to St. Louis on the last western trip it appeared that the end had come and that either St. Louis or Boston was going to the front with a rush.

BROWNS' GOOD RECORD. Instead of going to pieces the Athletics braced up sharply, finished their western trip nicely and went home in first place. Boston, on the other hand, blew up hopelessly. It was walloped badly by Philadelphia and staggered down the stretch beaten off. The finish was too hot for it.

St. Louis made a nice try to get up at the end, but Philadelphia finished too strongly.

One fact that added the Phillies on their home grounds was that several clubs which had on their teams former Philadelphia players could not use these star men while in the Quaker City, owing to the inductions issued against them. Weakened by the loss of their good men, these clubs dropped out of the race.

St. Louis has small cause to mourn the loss of the pennant. While the club would seem to be in a position to advance to the pennant pole in the outfield, it is entitled to scarcely less honor for the showing it made in the season's adverse conditions.

The team started in the face of popular dislike, and in the face of the face of poor home patronage and jeering from the stands. It won its way to the top, in spite of all obstacles. The Philadelphia club has a right to be proud of its season's work, and will finish the season with a good balance on the right side of the ledger.

DELMAR TRACK IS STILL HEAVY

Light Hunt and Schwalbe Look Like Winners Today.

BY R. D. WALSH. The changes in my selections for today's races as they appeared in the late editions of this paper need be very few. The track has, if that were possible, got deeper and heavier in the meantime, because some rain has fallen and more is in sight for today.

The more sloppy and muddy the track gets the better will be Tom Collins' chances in the first race. His second to Mission a few days ago in heavy going and carrying 15 pounds more than he does today, is a pretty good indication of his ability.

Light Hunt and Schwalbe are the best horses in the race. Light Hunt is a very good horse, and Schwalbe is a very good horse. They are the best horses in the race.

DR. HYATT NEEDED IN "CHI." In the days when Manager McAleer was a ball player for the All-American team on the Pacific coast trail, it is feared, interfere with the post-season series.

Fitcher Donahue, winner of many games, and Catcher Kahoe are to play with the All-American team. Philadelphia will likely be handicapped by the departure "for keeps" of some of her players at the end of the season from the team and will, perhaps, for that reason be unable to accept the challenge when it is sent.

It would be particularly appropriate for the Browns to be instrumental in reviving the custom of playing post-season games, they have done so much in the way of reviving this in the baseball world this season—all the way from re-establishing Ladies' Day to giving St. Louis a team that can play championship ball, even if it can't out-land pennants.

At that time, however, arrangements were made at the beginning of the season whereby it was agreed that winners of first and second places would play a series of games at the close of the season, part in one city, part in the other. By that means players were held until the post-season series was over, although they themselves were willing to stay because of the extra salary they received for the final games.

It is to be hoped, however, that no post-season games or any other kind of games are to be held in Chicago while weather is so bad. It is a generator of blues, a dampener (literally speaking) of spirits and a destroyer of baseball games.

Would that Dr. Hyatt could run things here.

EASTERN RACE HORSES TO GO Morris Park Sold and Streets Likely to Be Run Through Gravesend Any Time.

NEW YORK, Sept. 25.—There is hardly a doubt that the locale of several of the existing racing establishments will be much changed perhaps within a year. The sale of Morris Park, the most magnificent racing enterprise in America, is now an accomplished fact.

Streets may at any time be run through the course at Gravesend, which already is hemmed in by residences. To my mind the general opinion is that the leading race track of the country will be located further out on Long Island within a radius of 20 miles and will be modeled more after the English course.

WASHINGTON SQUAD GETS NEW RECRUITS

CHALLENGE TO PHILLY TO BE SENT TODAY

Secretary Hedges of the Browns Will Throw a Defi at the Athletics for a Post-Season Series of Games for the ADKINS' Cup.

Secretary Hedges of the St. Louis American League team this afternoon announced that he would wire the Philadelphia American League club today, challenging that organization to a post-season series to be played at a place agreed upon later.

The challenge is the result of the offer of Mr. Ben C. Adkins, director of the city water works, to donate a trophy to the winner of the proposed series.

Mr. Adkins is now with the Browns in Chicago, and is enthusiastic over the work of the club during the season passed.

As the proposed series would prove a great drawing card whether played in St. Louis or Philadelphia, it is thought the club of Connie Mack will meet the locals.

In the last series between the two clubs, St. Louis won all four of the games played. Secretary Hedges thinks the Browns can defeat the Philadelphiaans on the merits of the two teams.

WASHINGTON'S FOOTBALL SQUAD TO BE INCREASED THIS WEEK

Smith, Haliback, and Hope, Lineman, Were Added to It This Week—First Game With Lombard Saturday—Gossip of Other Gridirons.

Washington's football squad at League Park was yesterday increased by two men, and two who add materially to the team—Haliback Smith and Lineman Hope.

Both players played with the Varsity team last season and had a great part in the several victories of the team. Sears Lehman also puts in occasional appearance at the grounds, but can't do work, as his parents have not yet lifted the embargo on his playing this year.

No grounds for the Lombard game have as yet been decided on. League Park will be occupied by the baseball team on that date and it will be impossible for the Washington men to have it.

After the grounds are vacated the gridiron will be laid off diagonally from the east bleacher to pavilion.

HARVARD'S BACKFIELD STRONG. CAMBRIDGE, Mass., Sept. 25.—Harvard's football squad of 1902 has had four days' practice in preparation for the season's work. Another week will see a temporary lineup for the first game of the season, when Harvard meets Williams on Soldiers' Field.

In the back field Harvard should be strong. Capt. Kernan will be ready to lead the line. He is a powerful player, and who will return in a few days, should step into his place at full. Marshall, the little quarterback, is also in the line. He is in the line again, and will doubtless hold his position.

He is unique among the wearers of the Canvas Jacket.

The unique player on the football gridirons of the world is Nekker Schouchuk, an Eskimo boy, and the only player of his race in the country. He plays center rush for the Carlisle Indians' team and is a strong, heavy, clever man in his position.

Nekker is one of the well developed, hardy Alaskan type, and not of the dwarf class of the far north. Before he came to Carlisle he had never handled a football, and never had any idea of the game.

He is 19 years old, weighs 165 pounds and is 5 feet 7 inches in height. His face and arms are exceptionally large, and when he laughs his pale of almond-shaped eyes become almost closed. This unique character was born in the island of Fogakwak, in the Aleutian Islands. When quite young the family removed to the island of Kodiak.

His parents are dead, but a brother and sister still live in Fogakwak. The former are 5 years old. Prior to coming to Carlisle, Schouchuk received a few years' schooling in a Russian institution in Alaska and learned the Russian language.

When he was 12 years of age he was employed by fur traders, and this sturdy lad traveled as far south as Seattle, Wash., and to Sitka and Juneau.

UNCLE JACK WAS CHICKEN-HEARTED;
HE FELT FOR THE POOR CHICKEN

When He Reached the Pullet It Cackled and a Dog Took After Him—His Humane Ideas Were Grossly Misconstrued by a Policeman.

"Uncle" Jack Mason, an aged colored brother, arrested in Belleville while making off with a pullet, told the court that he found the chicken alone on a limb and felt sorry for it. He thought to restore it to its roost, with the other chicks, but it cackled and aroused the dog. Then, fearing the dog would harm the chicken, he was carrying it to a safe place when the policeman brought him to with a solid shot over his bow.

On the limb of a tree in a Belleville town lot.

Mr. Pullet sat sleeping—or maybe he sat—

And Uncle Jack Mason came mosey' along

His heart overflowed with a camp-meetin' song.

It was night. It was dark. It was drear, it was chill; From afar came the plaint of a lone whip-poor-will; And the breeze in the trees gave a sigh as in pain— That the pullet was lonesome to Jack it was plain.

"Oh, yo' po' little chick," Uncle Jack, in his grief, Whispered, "archin' up dar whar yo' shake lak a leaf; W'y, yo' ort to be down in de roost wif de rest— Ah'll jes put yo' down dar; ef Ah don'

Ah'll be blest!"

So saying, this chicken-philanthropist reached For the perch of the pullet. The pullet—

it screeched; And its screeching aroused the whole roost, and the fowls Filled the air with their cries. Beppo added his howls.

"Mussy me!" Uncle Jack could but gasp, in alarm; For he feared that the puppy that pullet might harm. And he made for his home—this compassionate man— To protect that poor chicken his purpose and plan.

But an officer, hearing the shriek and the bark, With a dense understanding, despicably

dark, Undivining the motive of good Uncle

Jack— At the figure afloat with his gun took a crack.

"Tis a pity indeed that intentions so good

Are neither by coppers nor court understood; For a tenderness such as Jack Mason confessed, Such a soft chicken-heart, very few have possessed.

LAYING OF HAWAIIAN CABLE.

Message Will Pass Over the Line

Within Eighty Days.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 23.—Within 80

days messages will pass over the Pacific cable between San Francisco and Honolulu. This positive statement was made by Richard V. Day, the local representaative of Clarence H. Mackay, son of the late John W. Mackay. "The steamer Silverton with the cable on board is due at this port in 60 days. There will be no delay at this port for she will steam out to Ocean Beach and in a few hours the cable will be brought ashore and safely anchored or fastened at the station. Once the American end of the line is made secure, the steamer will sail at once for Honolulu.

Fourteen days are allowed for the trip, so that the other end of the cable may be carried ashore at the Hawaiian capital and dispatches passed over it early in December. The remainder of the cable will be laid as expeditiously as possible. It will touch at Guam and end at Manila.

The cost of the project is about $12,500, 000.

Clarence Mackay left yesterday for London via New York, but he will soon return and establish a home here, a large part of his father's estate being located in this city and state.

TO EXPEDITE YOUNG'S TRIAL.

NEW YORK, Sept. 25.—William Hooper Young's trial for the murder of Mrs. Joseph Pulitzer is to be pushed with exceptional speed in the district attorney's office. The case will be laid before the grand jury with the least possible delay. Statements on that end of the case are now being taken, and probably will be presented to the October grand jury as soon as that body is sworn in. The examination before Magistrate Mayo, set for Sept. 30, is expected to be short, and to result in the man's being held for the grand jury.

VIGIL TO PREVENT A SUICIDE

George Bayer, Aged Fifty, After Being Twice Thwarted, Thanked Neighbors Who Watched Him.

George Bayer, aged 50, leaped into a well in the rear of his home at Gilbert and Caseyville avenues, North Belleville, Wednesday afternoon, and was dragged out by neighbors, who descended the well on a ladder for the purpose.

Entering the house in his dripping clothing, Bayer took a revolver from the bureau and was loading it with shells when his rescuers entered and interfered with his operations, taking the weapon away from him.

Fearing that Bayer might injure himself by his persistent attempts at suicide, the neighbors established a guard and kept watch in relays Wednesday night to prevent further efforts at self-destruction.

Thursday morning Bayer seemed to be in a rational frame of mind, and assured his neighbors that he no longer desired to end his life. They then left his house, after receiving his profuse thanks for their interference of the day before, for which he had not appeared so grateful at the time.

Bayer's wife saw his leap into the well, and called the nearest neighbors. One descended the well on a ladder and held the struggling man above the water until others had lowered a rope. This was placed about his shoulders, and he was hoisted to the top.

The cause of the despondency which led the man to attempt suicide is not known. He had been in a despondent mood for some days, his wife says.

A Protest.

From the Philadelphia Press.
"May!" Mrs. Newcomer called down to the servant, "Mrs. Remond's dog is crossing the road, and I believe she's coming here. Run out and turn that doorman upside down."
"Which one, ma'am?"
"The one at the front door that has 'welcome' on it."

ESCAPING.

We all have been escaping from our summer togs for the last few weeks.

First we got rid of our "straws." Then we shook our feet free of oxford.

Now we ought to be in our fall suits. Fall sephers make the flimsy summer fabric flap around most chillingly. Look cold, if they're not. Some critical mortals may think you haven't "the price" if you don't get into your fall togs soon.

We're prepared to put you into your fall togs just as soon as you want 'em—$25 to $45.
